

Flash cultural calendar

JULY

Shades of Gray

Acclaimed Choreographer Graeme Murphy's latest work with The Sydney Dance Company.

State Theatre, The Arts Centre, Melbourne

July 1 – 10

www.ticketmaster.com.au

The Playhouse, Canberra Theatre Centre

July 14 – 17

www.canberratheatre.org.au

Brisbane Jazz and Blues Festival

Three day Jazz and Blues Festival in the heart of Brisbane City.

Roma St Parklands, Brisbane

July 2 – 4

www.jazzandbluesfestival.com.au

Viva Frida

A week-long exhibition and festival commemorating the 50th anniversary of the death of Mexican modernist painter, Frida Kahlo.

Brisbane Powerhouse

July 6 – 13

www.brisbanepowerhouse.org

Ed Kuepper's mFL (music for Len Lye)

One of the 'godfathers' of Punk - Ed Kuepper - joins forces with an international cast of artists for a rare project that fuses live music, video projection and minimal set design.

The Studio, Sydney Opera House

July 9

www.sydneyoperahouse.com/thestudio/

Fluff

The story of two strange but caring women who are investigating the stories behind the world's lost and found homemade toys using amazing music and fabulous design.

The Studio, Sydney Opera House

July 13 – 17

www.sydneyoperahouse.com/thestudio/

Mum's the Word

The must see show for everyone who is a mum, is married to a mum or has had a mum.

Sydney Opera House, Playhouse

July 13 – 1 August

www.sydneyoperahouse.com

Inna Thigh – The Sista She Story

Two Girls. Four Thighs. One Mission. Described by the Sydney Morning Herald as "arguably the funniest and funkier duo to hit the stage in Australia" Sista She are creating hip-hop 'herstory'.

Brisbane Powerhouse

July 14 – 17

www.brisbanepowerhouse.org

Melbourne International Film Festival

Australia's premier celebration of new world and local cinema. 400 films from more than 50 countries.

Festival Hub @ The Forum Theatre. Melbourne

July 21 – August 8

www.melbournefilmfestival.com.au