

Flash Photobition Cultural Calendar

September

Live Radio Plays

Warm up the valves, tune your antenna and gather round our radio campfire as we revive the lost art of listening in a series of live-to-air radio plays where the theatre is all in your mind.

September 5 - 19

The Studio- Sydney Opera House

<http://www.sydneyoperahouse.com>

Bach to Buenos Aires

The ACO unearths the skilful compositional technique beneath Astor Piazzolla's smoky, sexy tango music, jazzy rhythms and late-night melodies.

September 6

QPAC Concert Hall, Brisbane

<http://www.qpac.com.au>

Red Hot & New

Ballet in the 21st century: This innovative and energetic program is moving the form forward and reaching out to new audiences.

September 10 - 21

Victorian State Theatre, Melbourne

<http://www.theartscentre.net.au>

Melbourne Breweries - the first and last factories

The exhibition revisits Carlton Brewery and the other industrial shrines of Melbourne and will draw upon the City of Melbourne's Art & Heritage.

Now until 2 October

Cit Gallery, Melbourne

<http://www.melbourne.vic.gov.au>

City Talks - Houses of the Future

The keynote speaker will be Greg Lynn, a futuristic architect from Los Angeles and one of Time Magazine's innovators for the next century.

September 28

City Recital Hall, Sydney

www.cityrecitalhall.com

Wakakirri Story-Dance 2004

Thousands of primary and secondary school students take to the stage to perform stories using a blend of creative movement and acting in the ACT heat of this national performing arts event.

August 23 - 31

Canberra Theatre

<http://www.canberratheatre.org.au>